

Investor's ETF Report

6,847 Former Subscribers $175/M

Former subscribers to The Investor's ETF Report, edited by Mark Salzinger, a comprehensive newsletter that tracked nearly 400 exchange traded funds (ETFs). Each issue provided comparative reports of each ETF's performance based on original research. The publication also provided specific ETF recommendations for each stage of an investor's life. (Final issue published July 2016. Active Subscribers now receive No-Load Fund Investor, its' sister publication.)

The Investor's ETF Report represents affluent, action-oriented investors who seek advice in order to make their own decisions through ETFs, individual stocks and mutual funds. By covering the broad spectrum of ETFs, ranging from aggressive growth, to income, foreign, to currencies and commodities, it attracts investors seeking maximum capital gains as well as security and income.

Subscribers were mostly direct mail sold and paid $79 for one year or $149 for two years.
